

Methodology

CFIB's research is based on members' views, which are collected through various controlled-access member surveys using a one-member one-vote system. CFIB produces clear, credible, and compelling analysis that supports the success of independent business in Canada.

CFIB membership has good representation across regions, sectors, and business sizes; hence the survey data offers a reasonable estimate of the distribution of economic activity across Canada.

Your Business Outlook is a monthly CFIB tracking survey that covers small business confidence, expectations, and operating conditions. Findings are typically based on several hundred responses from a stratified random sample of CFIB members. Every third Thursday of the month, results are released in our Business Barometer® reports (Canada, provinces and industries), at cfib.ca/barometer.

Your Voice is a monthly CFIB omnibus survey that covers a wide range of current topics. Results are based on several thousand r responses each time and are presented in a few monthly key charts at cfib.ca/research.

The Special Survey on the Impacts of the U.S.-Canada Trade War examines the impact of the trade war between the United States and Canada on small businesses. The survey was conducted twice, each time receiving several thousand responses. The results are presented through a series of key charts available at cfib.ca/research/tariffs.

Forecasts are based on CFIB data collected via the Your Business Outlook survey, a data set that is available the same month it is collected. By contrast, most other publicly available economic indicators have a delay, sometimes longer than two months.

Job vacancies estimates are also based on the Your Business Outlook survey. The analysis uses data from the CFIB survey, Statistics Canada's Survey of Employment, Payrolls and Hours as well as custom tabulations from Statistics Canada's Labour Force Survey.
