Progress made to date:

- Reinstatement of PST exemption for agriculture (crop, livestock & hail insurance premiums), as well as individual and group life & health insurance premiums;
- Increasing the Small Business Corporate Income Tax Threshold to $600,000;
- Opposing a $15 minimum wage;
- Sask WCB rebating back your money; 100% of its $281.5M surplus from 2015 & rebating 100% of its $141M surplus from 2014.

More work left to do:

- Oppose giving increased taxation powers to municipalities;
- Remove the PST from items such as construction labour, restaurant meals and other insurance products such as property & vehicle insurance;
- Continue to aggressively oppose a federally imposed costly carbon tax;
- Refund the $442 million WCB surplus back to employers;
- Consider the cost of a new statutory holiday in Saskatchewan;
- Reverse your decision to support a CPP increase;
- Other _____.

Premier Moe Values Your Voice!

“Thanks to Marilyn, Dan and Jennifer of the CFIB for meeting yesterday and for being a voice of thousands of small businesses in Saskatchewan, especially most recently regarding our decision to restore the PST exemption on crop, life and health insurance.

Looking forward to continuing work with you to ensure our province’s business environment remains competitive to encourage even more job creation.”

- Hon. Scott Moe, Premier of Saskatchewan, March, 2018
