

Select Internal Trade Indicators

Province/Territory	Unlimited import of alcohol for personal consumption ¹	Direct-to-consumer shipment of wines	Current exceptions in CFTA ³	Future exceptions in CFTA ^{4,5}	Extra-provincial business registration and renewal fees waived ^{6,7}
Alberta	Yes	No	6	9	No
British Columbia	No	Yes	6	4	No
Manitoba	Yes	Yes	10	5	No
New Brunswick	No	No	3	4	No
Newfoundland and Labrador	No	No	11	5	No
Northwest Territories	No	No	1	9	No
Nova Scotia	Yes	Yes	9	5	Yes
Nunavut	No	No	1	10	No
Ontario	No	No	19	2	Yes
Prince Edward Island	No	No	9	4	No
Quebec	No	No	19	6	No
Saskatchewan	Yes	No ²	9	2	No
Yukon Territory	No	No	13	8	No

Notes:

1. For personal use and carried on person.
2. Saskatchewan allows for only British Columbia produced wine and craft spirits to be shipped directly to its residents.
3. The federal government has eight exceptions.
4. Allows for provinces and territories to protect future activity in sectors like energy, fisheries and agriculture.
5. The federal government has identified ten exceptions.
6. Ontario and Nova Scotia are the only provinces that have ended the practise of charging businesses extra to operate outside their home province or territory.
7. Some provinces have agreements between them which waive extra-provincial registration requirements:
 - (i) British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan (New West Partnership Trade Agreement)
 - (ii) Ontario and Quebec
 - (iii) Nova Scotia and New Brunswick